Thirteen carloads of sugar have been standing on the B. & M. R. R. tracks belonging to one firm. The railroad company refused to allow other cars loaded until shipment was made. Part of the cars have disappeared. Millions of pounds stored in New York. Would it be a crime to show this gang a slip knot and plenty of rope in the hands of the people?

GOVERNMENT IS READY TO CRUSH "RED" OUTBREAK

Public Men in All Parts of Country Given Protection--Soldiers and Police on Guard

(By Associated Press)
New York, May 1.—The dawn of May Day found many cities in the east under strong police and military guard in anticipation of possible acts of violence by radicals. In New York City where Wm. J. Flynn, chief of the bureau of investigation of the Department of Justice, directed operations, the entire police force of 11,000 men was on duty. The soldiers at Governor's Island were armed with 100 pounds of ammunition and held in readiness for instant duty. Arrangements were made to mobilize the New York guard in case of necessity and 100 posts of the Legion agreed to report at police stations should the emergency arise. In Hartford, Connecticut, infantry men of the National Guard Regiment patrolled the State Capitol, the state armory and the bridge over the Connecticut river and various municipal buildings. The guardsmen were hurriedly summoned for duty early today following reports made to Charles W. Burke that the public and state buildings were to be blown up.

Washington, May 1.—Forewarned by the Department of Justice, those responsible for the maintenance of order in every city and industrial center, were prepared today to meet the first time of any disorders instigated by radical elements by reports continued to arise. The communist agitators were doing all in their power to arouse the workers to "May Day show of power" early today. No instances of violence had come from any source. Special care had been taken to safeguard the members of Congress and the three federal judges and attorney of the Department of Justice to have been selected by the agitators for assassination. Assistant Attorney General Garvan announced an "amazing" amount of money had been spent by the Communist labor party in the distribution of propaganda and in preparing for demonstrations. The money had been addressed to Amsterdam where it had been sent from Russia.

AIRPLANE DOES STUNTS OVER CITY STREETS

Former Army Aviator in a Curtis Machine Lands at the Fair Grounds.

The Curtis airplane which had been engaged by The Herald to make a demonstration of Portsmouth last Saturday, but which was held up because of the high wind, made a successful flight from Boston today, arriving in this city just before noon.

She was piloted by her owner, Parker Brooks Sturges, an ex-army aviator. Sturges reached this city shortly after ten o'clock and after doing several stunts over the city for the benefit of the thousands of Herald readers, he made a successful landing at the grounds of the Rockingham County Fair association on Sherburne road. He came to a stop at exactly 10:40, and was greeted by the editor of The Herald, Mr. and Mrs. Elser of the Portsmouth Motor Mart, and Albert H. Hatch, Esq.

Sturges said that he had had a most enjoyable flight from Boston, his only complaint being of the cold. Mr. Elser had a supply of high test gasoline for the machine and after this was taken aboard Sturges came into Portsmouth for dinner. As soon as it was noted that the airplane was at the fair grounds hundreds of people went out to see it.

The Curtis JN is a 2-passenger airplane which was constructed as a training machine for the British and American flying forces during the war, 95 per cent of all the Canadian and American flyers receiving their primary training on this plane. Since the war the Curtis JN has been put to peace time service as an aerial carrier of passengers and merchandise.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon Sturges left for Auburn, Me., where he will put up for the night. Owing to weather conditions the number of The Herald staff who had been invited to ride with Sturges was forced to abandon his trip.

S. S. BROOKLINE IS LAUNCHED AT ATLANTIC SHIP YARD

Two Thousand People See Miss Grace H. Parker Christen 8,800-Ton Freighter at Noon Today

At precisely 11:15 President Arthur A. Sharpe of the Atlantic Corporation cut the line which released the big 8,800-ton steel ship "Brookline" and Miss Grace H. Parker cracked a bottle of champagne on her bow. The big ship glided very prettily into the Piscataqua amid the cheers of several thousand spectators. The yard was closed for the day and many of the workmen were present. The Atlantic band gave a concert and Rev. Nelson Kellogg offered prayer before the ship was released. Rear Admiral A. S. Halstead of the navy yard and staff were present, Rear Admiral Wadsworth and staff and Industrial Manager L. B. Adams and staff with their ladies. At the close a luncheon was served to the launching guests.

The entire affair was under the direction of General Manager H. C. Raynes. The day was perfect, the sun bursting forth just previous to the hour fixed for the launching.

The party from Brookline was composed of the following: Miss Grace H. Parker, the sponsor, Miss Eleanor Parker, Miss Frances Parker, Philip E. Parker Jr., Mr. and Mrs. George S. Baldwin, Walter B. English, George H. Worthier, Samuel C. Payson, Miss Edith Payson, Miss Chidney, Miss Dorothy Parker, Miss Catherine Howard, Dr. Augustus Thordike, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest H. Davis and two sons, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Appleby, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Cousins, Miss Abbott, Dr. Stokes, Mr. and Mrs. Philip S. Parker.

NASHUA THEATRE IS BURNED TO THE GROUND

Building Valued at $60,000 Was Owned by Scottish Rite Masons.

(By Associated Press)
Nashua, May 1.—The Colonial Theatre building was destroyed early today by fire which was thought to have started from a smoldering cigarette. The auditorium was the only one in which theatrical companies showed here. The building was owned by the New Hampshire Consistory Scottish Rite Masons and was valued at $60,000.

MURRAY DIES FROM K. O. BLOW BY POWERS

Authorities Say Boxer's Death Was Due to an Accident.

(By Associated Press)
Boston, May 1.—John H. Murray, a professional boxer, who was knocked out in a bout with Dave Powers of Malden last night, died at a hospital today. Powers was arrested and charged with manslaughter but the court discharged him with the statement that Murray's death was obviously due to an accident.

MEETING ON THE NEW BRIDGE AT ROCKINGHAM

Commission Discusses Plans, Several Designs and New Location.

Governors Mellen and Bartlett, Rear Admiral C. W. Parks, Chief of the Bureau of Yards and Docks of the Navy representing Sec. Daniels, Commander Brownell of the navy yard civil engineer corps, Engineers Jones and Grover, met at the Rockingham at 11 o'clock this forenoon where they were in session a greater part of the day relative to the Memorial Bridge. Several designs and plans were submitted to the commission and the matter of location was under discussion during the forenoon.

The proposed entrance on both sides of the river was viewed by the party. Rear Admiral Parks stated the commission expected to clear up all work on hand at today's meeting and nothing will be done until he reports to the department at Washington.

SEEK AUTHORITY TO ISSUE BONDS FOR MORTGAGES

The civil case of Margaret Varrell against Carrie B. Smith, both of Rye, was heard before William E. Marvin as Judge on Friday in the office of Sewall and Waldron. ATLANTIC FLEET IN NEW YORK HARBOR TODAY

Over 25,000 Blue Jackets Will Be Given Two Weeks Ashore--Secretary Daniels Reviews Fleet

(By Associated Press)
New York, May 1.—The great Atlantic fleet arrived in home waters early today to give 25,000 blue jackets recreation of two weeks from their long period of target practice and drill at Guantanamo, Cuba. The fleet comprising 8 monster battleships, aggregating more than 200,000 tons displacement and more than 40 destroyers and small fighting craft nosed its way in through the heavy mist down to their station in the Hudson river. The battle flagship Pennsylvania with Admiral Nelson, commander of the fleet, and Secretary of the Navy, Daniels and Admiral Countz, chief of naval operations, who boarded the dreadnought early Friday morning.

The annual meeting of the Ministerial Association of Portsmouth and vicinity will be held on Monday, May 3 at 10:15 o'clock at the Baptist Annex. The paper to be presented will be by Secretary Lott C. Schmalzried, who will speak on the Y. M. C. A.

ANNUAL MEETING

MILK NOTICE

We take this method to inform our customers and others that are interested for a sanitary and safe milk supply that we have secured the services of MR. JOHN G. JELLISSON, formerly for many years the efficient manager of the Winchester Farm, which, during his supervision, was noted for its order and cleanliness. Mr. Jellison has taken personal charge of the delicate and expensive pasteurizing and bottling apparatus at our plant, which is an insurance to patrons of PERFECT CREAMLINESS. It is our endeavor to offer to the people of Portsmouth the very best milk and cream product. And, to this end we have asked for the advice and co-operation of the Board of Health, both in the conduct of the Creamery and the production of milk at the Farm.

Portsmouth, N. H., Saturday, May 1, 1920.

Don't Doubt That Germany Knows.

When the armistice was declared there were many who felt that the war had ended too soon; that in spite of the fact that the Germans had thrown up their hands the cry of the Allies should have been, "On to Berlin!" and that Germany should have been given a taste of the devastation she wrought in France and Belgium. It may be that Germany deserved such treatment, but this paper has never been in sympathy with the spirit which would have prolonged the war one moment after it could be safely brought to an end.

And since the war was ended the claim has been advanced from time to time that the Germans do not know that they were whipped, notwithstanding the fact that there is good ground for the belief that no one in the world knows better than themselves that they were whipped to a standstill. Whatever else may be said about them, they had demonstrated beyond question that they were not the kind of people to throw up their hands until it was necessary to do so. And there is no good reason to believe that they did.

Still there are those who persist in the contention that Germany doesn't know that she has been whipped and is already dreaming of future operations against the peace of the world. A correspondent cabling from Paris says his observations in Germany convince him that if the Germans are not already plotting a new war, they are nevertheless thinking of it. They are, he says, hoping to create a breach between the Allies and then to take revenge upon France and reduce the treaty of Versailles to a "scrap of paper." He says their position is: "Let America and Britain stand aside and we will lick France so badly she will never be able to recover."

But who supposes that America and Britain will ever stand aside and permit Germany to carry out such a program? It would be preposterous to believe that the Germans themselves do. In spite of all they or anybody else may say, they know what has happened and what has been done. This is exactly what Thomas Mott Osborne in a public address in Massachusetts when the war was at its height said must be done. His words were: "Germany must be licked until every man, woman and child in that country knows that she is licked."

That is what was done and the people of Germany know it. They need no instruction on the subject from any quarter. It is foolish to imagine that they are planning for another war. No one doubts that they would be glad to rise again and sweep the world if it were in their power to do it; but it is not, and they know it, and are disposed to make the best of a bad job.

All talk about the disruption of the Allies and throwing the world open to another conflagration is nonsense, notwithstanding the delay of this country in completing the Peace Treaty and the League of Nations. This delay is due to politics and not to public sentiment, and, while regrettable, will not permanently prevent a consummation which the whole world is hoping and looking for.

In the meantime if there are souls credulous enough to believe and timid enough to fear that Germany will in the near future be on the warpath again they should calm themselves with the thought that it will be many, many years before that nation will be ready to repeat the awful experiment that resulted in the World War, whose outcome is nowhere better understood than it is in Germany.

It is a credit to the school children of Portsmouth that they have decided to continue "war gardening" for at least another season. They are entering upon the project with their accustomed courage and vigor, and without doubt substantial results will be achieved. This paper wishes them the utmost success in their worthy efforts.

Dartmouth College is to have a new chemical laboratory which will be a handsome and valuable addition to its facilities. This is welcome news to the people of the state and to loyal alumni in all parts of the country.

The new memorial athletic field to be constructed at the State College at Durham this summer will be highly appreciated by the student body and all friends of the institution which is doing such valuable service in behalf of the agricultural interests of New Hampshire.

It is announced that many are leaving the Department of Agriculture to take better paying positions elsewhere. But there is usually little trouble in filling public positions in spite of the competition of private business. If you think there is, just watch the proceedings when there is a public position vacant.

There are many anglers along the trout streams these days in spite of conditions that are not the most favorable, but it is foolish to suggest that they are attempting to reduce the cost of living, which indulgence in this sport is more apt to increase than to diminish.

Business men in politics may be all right, as a speaker suggests, but the country doesn't need any more men in politics for business.

Many are impatiently waiting for the Supreme Court to say, "What'll you have?"

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Profiteering in Sugar

(From the Washington Star)
A serious sugar shortage exists today. It is a shortage only as affects the consumer. He is forced to pay enormous prices for sugar and finds it hard to get any of these rates, four and five times what he used to pay for sweetening. Yet there is no actual shortage of sugar at the source. There may be a heavier consumption but not to the extent of causing the rate to advance by several hundred per cent. Somewhere along the line between the beet field and the cane plantation there is profiteering of the most flagrant kind.

The retailer cannot be blamed. He finds it difficult to get the sugar and he is as a rule charging only a moderate profit on his outlay, which has increased heavily. If he pays 18 cents a pound he is entitled to get 20. But who is getting the larger part of the 18 cents. In there a combination designed to keep sugar out of the market, or to drive it along to the end of holding up the price on the pretense of actual scarcity? With all its agencies of detection the government does not seem to be able to ascertain where the trouble lies.

Large users of sugar candy and soft drink manufacturers, have comparatively little difficulty in getting all the sugar they need. Candy consumption has increased since prohibition went into effect. But has this absorbed so much sugar as to jump the price for domestic use to several times the former cost? If so, there is justice in the public demand that the candy and soft drink makers be rationed.

Candy boys are proposed in a number of cities. They will be effective unless they are sustained and are supplemented by rigorous government action to release hoarded sugar and to check extortion. The people must have sugar and they must not be forced to pay outrageous prices for it. If the situation is not relieved there will be serious trouble.

Wall Shepherded

(From the Brooklyn Eagle)
Possibly no city but Londoners ever had a patrol of elegants instead of policemen out all night to prevent rioting. There a chaplain worked well and Roman Catholics as well as Presbyterians were pacified.

Ho Hughes to the Line Now
(James H. Hughes in the Chicago Evening Post)

Charles E. Hughes may not have averaged 100 per cent as a presidential candidate back in 1910, but as a lawyer and as a money-getter in the legal field it doesn't seem he has any serious competitors.

Friends of the former Republican candidate say his income is $1,000,000 a year. If he really makes that $1,000,000 Hughes is making more out of strictly legal work than any other lawyer in this country.

Hughes' present income is in striking contrast to what he received as a Justice of the United States Supreme Court. That position pays $14,500 a year. When Hughes was defeated for the presidency some said he made a mistake in resigning from the Supreme Court in order to run. But did he?

What really happened in November, 1916, was that the voters of this country—and particularly the voters of California—defeated Hughes upstairs in a position about sixty times what his former one had yielded.

So busy is Hughes' law office on Broadway that Attorneys say he has enough work to him busy for a hundred years.

He'll be very lucky if he gets to finish it. He was 68 years old on April 11.

Little Willie's Heaven Ticket

(From the London Post)
A doctor who was superintendent of the Sunday school in a small village asked one of the boys this question: "Willie, will you tell me what we must do in order to get to heaven?" Said Willie, "We must die." "Very true," replied the doctor, "but tell me what we must do before we die." "We must get sick," said Willie, "and send for you."

EIGHT MILLION WORKERS IDLE IN ENGLAND

(By Associated Press)
London, May 1.—Eight million workers are estimated to have participated in Great Britain's observance of May Day taking the day off, parading and speech making, but there were no interruptions to the nation's essential public service probably partially due to the fact that Saturday is normally a half holiday. The feature which gave prominence to distinguish the day was the inaugurating of an overall campaign similar to that in the United States by the middle class union calculated to cut down the price of clothing.

PARIS POLICE READY FOR ANY DISORDER

Troops Line Principal Streets in Anticipation of Ray Day Riots.

(By Associated Press)
Paris, May 1.—Troops are out in full strength today in anticipation of possible disorders in connection with the May Day celebration. Police officials were everywhere in evidence. Few text clubs circulated in the streets which were generally more deserted than ever before seen. The chatter of an occasionally cavalry detachment brought the only noise to break the calm. The recruitment of the idlers was feasible in their changed expressions when the patrols passed. There was a brisk business in the sale of small red artificial flowers. The mingling of many crowds by high school students excited subdued disapproval among the strikers but no violence was reported during the forenoon.

Personals

James K. Doyle and daughter are visiting relatives in Manchester, Mass. Mrs. Leroy Tucker is passing a week in Concord.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Smart of Morning Place are today quietly observing the forty-seventh anniversary of their marriage.

City Clerk and Mrs. Elmer B. Clark will quietly celebrate the fifteenth anniversary of their wedding on Sunday.

Jera Conble and daughter Catherine and Florence are in Boston today to attend the funeral of Miss Lena Conble of East Boston.

Mrs. F. Waldo Thayer of Chichester street is entertaining her daughter John A. Mace, who has lately arrived from Costa Rica, S. A.

Mrs. Michael Nangle and daughter Margaret and Mrs. Dorothy Denovan of Winchester, Mass., are the guests of Mrs. Duncan Cameron of Haverhill street.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Macdonald of Brookfield, Mass., formerly of this city, are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a son.

Miss Elizabeth D. Morrill is passing a few days with friends in Lakeside. Miss Mae Smith is on a trip to different points in the state in the interest of home mission work of the Methodist society.

RECOUNT VOTES IN NEW JERSEY

(By Associated Press)
Newark, N. J., May 1.—Chief Justice Gurnee of the Supreme Court today filed an order for a recount of the vote cast in last Tuesday's presidential preference primary for Senator Thomas Johnson and Major General Leonard Wood, republican candidate.

Newark, N. J., May 1.—The recount will be for the entire state and will begin on May 10 in five counties where Johnson supporters held that mistakes had been made in tabulations. The sum of $50,000 must be deposited by Senator Johnson before the recount will be begun to defray expenses incurred by the various county courts. The Justice's reason for allowing the recount to start in the first five counties said was to give Johnson's supporters opportunity to abandon the contest should it be shown by the recount in these counties that the result was not materially added.

This being May Day the children were out early and surprised a number of their friends with May baskets.

STRIKE FOR $1 AN HOUR WAGE IN FITCHBURG

(By Associated Press)
Fitchburg, Mass., May 1.—250 carpenters of Fitchburg and Leominster struck this morning for a wage of $1 an hour. A mass meeting will be held Sunday afternoon and it is expected that the contractors of the two cities also will meet. It is probable that a conference between the two groups will be held and adjustment of the situation is expected before Monday.

EPWORTH LEAGUE HAS ANNUAL MEETING

The Epworth League society of the Methodist church held a business meeting Friday evening at the close of the prayer meeting in the vestry and the annual election of officers took place as follows:

President—Miss Marguerite G. Jones.
First vice president—Mrs. Lettice C. Schmalzried.
Third vice president—Miss Gertrude Biddle.
Fourth vice president—Leroy C. Schmalzried.
Secretary—Harold Biddle.
Treasurer—Miss Maud Sanborn.
Phonist—Miss Pauline Taylor.
On Sunday, May 9, the anniversary of the Epworth League will be observed with a special program in the evening.

HAVERHILL MAN KILLED BY ONE-MAN CAR

Haverhill, May 1.—William C. Perkins, aged 77, was struck by a one-man car in charge of motorman Joseph P. Olney, corner Main street and Oxford avenue, yesterday morning and died 10 minutes later at the Gen. S. H. Gate Hospital. Medical Examiner John E. Cronin said death was due to fracture of the skull and concussion of the brain.

Mr. Perkins had lived here for the past 40 years and was engaged in the shoe business. He leaves a son, Warren C. Perkins, who is also in shoe business.

MAY DAY IS VERY QUIET IN BOSTON

(By Associated Press)
Boston, May 1.—May Day was marked in this city today by the walkout of workers in the building trades but those inclined to make this an occasion for industrial and political disorders kept under cover. Police officials found no indications of any likelihood of trouble. Circulars purporting to be part of the propaganda of the Communist party were posted and distributed here and in other places. Meetings in observance of the International Labor day were arranged for in this city last night and in Lawrence this afternoon. Precautions taken by the authorities against the outbreaks included the posting of a heavy guard about the Court house at Pelham Square and in the placing of machine guns at police stations. A man arrested in a room near that of Oliver Goodridge at a hotel here last night was said today to be probably a Communist but without any intent against the governor and probably without knowledge that the governor had a room near him.

Certified Milk

Is the ideal milk and is very desirable. It is ten times safer but expensive and is not sold or produced in Portsmouth or immediate vicinity.

Should milk for children and our own consumption be less safe-guarded?

CLEAN MILK PASTEURIZED

IS THE ONLY ABSOLUTELY SAFE MILK

and is produced in Portsmouth in the most modern milk plant in New England and is sold at the same price as ordinary milk—in cents per quart—which our central delivery and volume of business makes possible. It is more profitable for us to sell the raw milk (while the health laws permit it and the customer is indifferent), but we recommend and prefer to sell a safe and sanitary product at a less profit. We respectfully solicit your patronage and invite inspection of our plant.

HOWIE GETS DECISION OVER GAUVIN

Hammering Howie defeated Young Gauvin of Somersworth in a fast and snelling twelve round bout at the City Belfast A. C. at Freeman's hall on Friday evening. Gauvin deserves considerable credit for staying with Howie for the twelve rounds and he surprised the fans with the battle he put up, but Howie had the better of the going after he once got started and the decision of Alio Brown, the third man in the ring, was well received. Howie was the aggressor and he took the fighting to Gauvin the greater part of the battle, but the Somersworth lad had a good defense and finished in shape, although he was outpointed in about every round.

Frankie Meehan of Portland who was to meet Herbert in the semi-final, broke his thumb in a bout at Waterville and Young St. Helaire was substituted. It was a rattling good bout and Herbert profited by his defeat at the hands of St. Helaire in their last bout, kept away from the rugged hard hitting up river lad and won a draw. Herbert is much the clever boxer but he is not as heavy as his opponent St. Helaire, but in the opinion of the fans he had a shade on him, especially on points.

Ed Denstall of Dover stopped his boy in the preliminary in two rounds of what was scheduled to be a six round affair.

LOOKING THEM OVER WITH THE SPORT FAN

The following bouts of Portland fighters attending Frankie Meehan, who was scheduled to box before the Belfast A. C. in this city last night, is of interest to local boxing followers:

Young Hooper of South Brewer outboxed Frankie Meehan of Portland in the sixth six round bout at the Elm Street Athletic club, Waterville, Wednesday night. In the first six rounds Hooper outboxed Meehan in the face of all he was tried. The Portland man stood the guff easily and stayed the fight with only a bloody nose to show as a mark of the conflict. Meehan outboxed Hooper in the seventh round, who put his left thumb out of commission when he knocked out an opponent in the preliminary at Camp Meyers the night of the week.

Before leaving for the west with his champion John Hixson, Dan Morgan declared that the 15 round decision fought in New York state would not keep him from fighting for a decision as he intends to match both Boston and Baltimore. Loxley, the light heavyweight champion, for bouts in New York.

Boxing fans for miles around will flock to Lawrence today to witness the bout between Champion Flyweight boxer of England, Jimmy Wilde, and Bobby Dixon of New Bedford, holder of the New England bantam title.

At the time that Stanislaus Zbyszko arrived in New York and exhibited his enormous bulk of 350 pounds to astonished onlookers, the prediction was made that if he ever fell on an opponent, the consequences would be disastrous to said opponent. The prophecy has been realized and William Demetral, former Greek champion, is the victim with two fractured ribs. The crash took place in a recent match and Demetral's misfortune was due to his own recklessness. He had a body hold on the Pole from behind and Zbyszko naturally fell over backward on the Greek and flattened him like a pancake. When the human elephant got off the Greek it was found that the victim's ribs were badly disarranged.

ENJOYABLE DANCING PARTY AT THE HEIGHTS

The Atlantic Supervisors Association held their third big dance and entertainment at Cafeteria High, Atlantic Heights on Friday evening, and it was in every way a great success. The attendance was a great success. The dancing committee, who had charge had every detail arranged.

There was excellent music, the hall was well decorated and the entertainment was pleasing. Dancing was enjoyed until after midnight and it was with regret that the crowd left the hall. There were a good number from this city present as well as the majority of the residents of the Heights.

The following are the officers and the committee who are entitled to great credit for their good work:

Chairman—J. T. Carroll, secretary, treasurer, J. T. Wisniewski.

Musical Committee—R. R. Almy, J. Montgomery, C. T. Penhall.

Dance Committee—A. Dorey, A. Poles, C. Kelly.

Refreshments—A. Dorey, T. R. Almy, M. Beardon.

Advertising—J. P. Fong, M. Beardon, C. T. Penhall, W. B. Crogan, E. B. Williams, J. Newell, A. C. Hunt, G. Dillie, T. Brown.

Entertainment Committee—C. H. Bloom, L. Lord Borg, T. Brown, H. McQueen, T. Harrington, C. Kelly.

WALL STREET SEES GEORGE WASHINGTON INAUGURATED

New York, May 1.—The inauguration of George Washington as the first president of the United States, exactly as it took place 131 years ago, was reproduced yesterday on the steps of the sub-treasury building in Wall street, under the auspices of the Constitutional League of America.

On the spot where the "father of his country" stood, thousands of brokers, bankers and clerics watched actors go through the ceremony which marked the 131st anniversary of the adoption of the constitution. All the notable of Washington's day were impersonated.

ALIEN AGITATORS DISTURB ALASKA

Armed Coastguard Cutter Is Sent to Hydar, to Keep Order There.

Washington, May 1.—Activity of alien agitators in the vicinity of Hydar, Alaska, resulted in the dispatch of the coastguard cutter Algonquin, from Port Townsend, Washington, to that place.

Announcing the departure of the Algonquin, the coastguard service said the vessel would co-operate with the local officials in maintaining order. The Algonquin carries a crew of 71 and is equipped with four 3-inch rifles and two machine guns.

FINED $300 AND SENT TO JAIL FOR DRY LAW VIOLATION

In the federal court at Concord, Mass. DuPont of Berlin, son of a member of the Governor's staff, was fined $300 and sentenced to jail for three months for violation of the federal liquor laws.

He was fined $100 for selling 17 gallons of alcohol for beverage purposes and fined $200 and given the jail sentence for fraudulently withdrawing alcohol from the Everett distillery in Everett, Mass.

MAKES FOOD TASTE

Good—Hood's Gargeparilla, Creates an Appetite.

Aids digestion and promotes assimilation so that the body acquires full nutritive value, thus naturally making the work strong and giving the vitality of health. This great medicine enables the digestive organs to perform their functions easily, keeps the stomach sweet and healthy or prevents indigestion and other digestive troubles.

When your food does taste good it is a sign of good or returning health; shows that the blood is becoming richer, ridding itself of poisons, rheumatism and other diseases; and that the system is being built up to overcome that tired feeling and the prostration after influenza and fevers. The one medicine that can logically claim to do all this is Hood's Gargeparilla.

If a mild laxative is needed, take Hood's Pills. They give entire satisfaction.

GRAND OFFICERS MAKE ANNUAL INSPECTION

The annual inspection of St. John's Lodge No. 1 A. F. A. M. was held on Friday evening at Masonic Hall, and it brought out a large attendance of the members and adjoining Masons.

Dinner was served at 6:15 and at 7:30 the lodge was opened and the work of the evening started. The visiting grand lodge representatives were R. W. Master William H. Randall, district deputy grand master of the first Masonic District and R. W. George A. Scott of Stratford, Lodge No. 29 of Dover district grand master, were received in due form and they made the annual inspection. The entered apprentice degree was exemplified by the lodge officers. Asisting in the work were the Louis Male quarter of Boston with Oranah Leon A. Robinson.

This was the 128th communication of this famous old lodge of Masons.

FIGHT AGAINST THE SALES TAX MEASURE BEGINS

Elimination of That Provision, and Substitution of Tax on Big Incomes Is Suggested.

Washington, May 1.—The fight against a sales tax to raise part of the $1,500,000,000 needed for proposed relief legislation was started in the House of Representatives last night by Representative Little of Kansas, proposing elimination of this levy and the substitution of a tax on big incomes. A vote on his proposal was delayed by protracted discussion.

Representative Johnson of South Dakota, leader of the insurgents, said that 13 Republicans had signed a petition declaring in favor of the legislation, but announcing they would not support the sales tax.

While the insurgents were in the minority, Representative Mandell, the floor leader, was prepared to ask the conference to pledge the support of the entire Republican membership to the bill as framed by the Republican members of the ways and means committee. His motion to bind the Republicans had not been presented at a late hour.

The bill, completed by the Republicans proposed five plans of soldier relief and a similar number of schemes for raising the revenue.

CLAREMONT MAN KILLS HIMSELF

Gun With Which He Was Tinkering Discharges and Shoots Him Through Head.

Claremont.—Frank Austin Fletcher was instantly killed at his home, 25 Front street, by the discharge of a gun with which he was tinkering.

Mr. Fletcher has been ill of late and confined to his home by a nervous collapse. Thursday evening he was in the sewing room tinkering with a "game getter" gun. His wife left the house for a few minutes to do an errand and upon her return, found her husband dead, shot through the head. Dr. Jarvis was called and he acted in place of the medical examiner.

There was no one present when the shooting took place, so it is not known how the accident occurred. Mr. Fletcher is thoroughly acquainted with firearms and has a large assortment at his home, being a huntsman and loves shooting. His familiarity leads the belief to be that the shooting was accidental, for he had no reason to take his own life, for he had a happy home and was successful at his work, being a tool maker at the Sullivan machine shop. He just adored his family, having three young daughters and a loving and attentive wife. He was popular with all who knew him.

Mr. Fletcher was 47 years of age, a native of Newport, Vt., and came to Claremont about 20 years ago from Massachusetts. He was married 17 years ago to Miss Hattie Hooper of this town, who, with his three daughters, survive him, besides four brothers.

CARPENTERS AND MASONS GET $1.00 AN HOUR

The Carpenters and Masons go on their new pay schedule beginning today May 1, and hereafter all union carpenters and masons will be paid $1.00 an hour for a forty-four hour week. That is, eight hours a day and four hours on Saturday. These are the only two trades whose contracts are made on May first and the demands of both of the trades were agreed to by the Master Builders Association.

The pay of the carpenters goes up from 80 cents an hour to $1.00 and the masons from 90 cents to $1.00. The Plumbers and Painters have already gone on their new schedule.

Under the present schedule the carpenters get $1.25 a day for carpenter work and the same for mason work.

Y. M. C. A. BUILDING DEDICATED FIFTEEN YEARS AGO TODAY

The Portsmouth Young Men's Christian Association, one of the organizations of which this city is justly proud, was dedicated fifteen years ago today with appropriate exercises and the affair was one of the memorable events in the annals of this city. In the afternoon the entire building was thrown open for inspection and on the evening of that day formal exercises were held, following which an orchestra, musical and among the speakers at this occasion were the late Hon. J. M. H. Prince of Greenland, Hon. W. H. Blake of Concord, Y. M. C. A. state secretary, and local pastors. The president of the local Y. M. C. A., the late E. P. Kimball, was chairman of the exercises and made the opening address.

After years of planning, preparation and hope, the Y. M. C. A. of this city had at last a building fitted for its growing needs. The Portsmouth Y. M. C. A. was organized Jan. 21, 1883, and incorporated March 4, 1891, after a

Speaker—MR. P. E. CALL

Subject—"Diamonds in the Rough"

ILLUSTRATED BY THE STEREOPTICON.

Mr. Call is superintendent of the Union Rescue Mission in Boston and speaks from a great experience with the down and out. A Boston business man says, "For an hour you will be amused by the speaker's wit, saddened by the pathos of it all, cheered by the wonderful revelations of God's power in reshaping deformed and broken human wrecks, and convinced beyond all shadow of doubt that Jesus Christ is saving men today."

That 260 pairs of twins were born in Maine last year.

That in 60 cases both babies were boys and 71 cases both babies were girls.

That the remaining 75 sets of twins were divided equally so that four mothers who wanted a girl and fathers who wanted a boy could find nothing to quarrel about.

That Aronstook Kennedy takes the lead with 31 pairs of twins, while Cumberland and Penobscot follow closely with 27 and 25, respectively. Kennebec and Washington 16, at 13 sets of twins; York comes next, with 12; Hallowell, 12; Hallowell, 12; Stoughton and Oxford, 10; at 8; Waldo, six; Knox records five, while Franklin and Piscataquis close the ranks, with four each.

That local dealers say they know nothing of the price of collars advancing.

That they say they have stood for an advance from the manufacturers but the price has been the same to the public.

That George E. Woods died recently at Pelham, N.H., in the house he was born in 52 years ago.

That he lived there all his life and most of the time alone.

That he is a brother of former Mayor John M. Woods of Somerville.

That Haverhill bakers are right after the dough more when than one.

That they demand a 12.5 increase in wages and 5 hours a day.

That they are now paid $33 a week and the new scale calls for $45, and double time on holidays.

That a word of in a trade paper read as follows: "Wanted—A good violinist and a good mandolin player, to work in the mill. State what work you can do in the mill. Address J. J. Barrett, Charlotte, N. C."

BAD WRECK OF A PORTSMOUTH FREIGHT TRAIN

Farmers and Autoists Carry Away Gasoline in Milk Cans, Coal Hods and Wash Tubs.

A north bound freight train, No. 1330 from this city over the Portsmouth branch of the Boston and Maine for Manchester, was wrecked at Hooks siding, south of Candler station on Friday.

This wreck is the worst that has taken place on the branch for years.

The train in charge of Conductor Bradford and Engineer Storey, consisted of 13 cars and all but three left the track and were piled up. Coal, home freight and other merchandise, was strewn about the ground and the roadbed torn up for 500 yards or more.

In the wreck was a tank car loaded with 8683 gallons of gasoline. When this car was overturned farmers and passing autoists salvaged some of the precious fluid in coal hods, milk cans and wash tubs.

In order to get the Portsmouth passenger trains for Concord by the wreck the section crew, connected the north line track with the south end of Hooks siding and after ten hours delay the train proceeded.

The wreck is thought to have been caused by a truck righting breaking away and dropping down on the track. The wrecking crew from Nashua and Manchester were called and worked for five hours.

PORTSMOUTH GIRLS WIN AT PLYMOUTH

Legion Defeats Normal School Team 35 to 14.

The basket ball team of the Peirce Post, American Legion, defeated the Plymouth Normal girls at Plymouth on Friday night and are entitled to claim the state championship. The score was 35 to 14 in a 30 minute contest.

The Plymouth girls did not have a look in only in the first period which ended with a score of 6 to 0. The Portsmouth girls in the next two periods put the game on ice and had no easy time in the finish.

PLEASANT EVENT

Birthday Party Given at Home of Miss Eleanor Pickering.

Miss Eleanor Pickering was the hostess at a gathering of twenty-six of her young friends Friday evening at her home on Rockland street, the party being given in recognition of her birthday anniversary. It was a most enjoyable affair and dancing and games furnished pleasant diversions.

Refreshments were served in the dining room and there was not a dull moment during the evening. Miss Eleanor received numerous birthday gifts from her guests and all expressed best wishes to the hostess on her anniversary day and appreciation for the delightful evening.

SCHOOL BOYS' BALL LEAGUE GOING FINE

Result of First Week's Play Shows Boys Are Full of "Pep."

The results of the first week of the Elementary School Baseball League are as follows:

Parochial defeated Haven and Spaulding.

Lafayette defeated Spaulding and Paragut.

Haven defeated Paragut.

At the end of this coming week each of the five teams in the league will have played each other once and then there will be more evidence on which to judge the comparative strength of the teams.

As might be expected the lack of a neighborhood playground is a real handicap to the Paragut and Spaulding schools and the latter school has the second disadvantage of having very little material to choose from beyond the actual nine members of the team. Both these school teams have been showing real pluck and courage in the face of discouraging conditions and the boys deserve no end of credit for their determination to stick it out and do the best they can.

Those playing in one inning caused the downfall of the Paragut team in their game with Haven school on Monday. Lafayette hit the ball for many times to be doled its games with Spaulding and Paragut. The tight game of the week was that between the Parochial and Haven which the former team won four runs to three.

NO MORE RIDES ON NO. HAMPTON LINE

Closed Friday After 20 Years' Service, Will Be Dismantled at Once.

Passenger's on the 3.05 p. m. trip over the North Hampton branch of the Portsmouth Electric Railway took their last ride over that line on Friday. This branch is no more and goes out of commission on a petition granted by the Public Service Commission last March.

The line has been in existence since June 1900 and covers a distance of 3 miles from Little Bear's Head Y to the B. & M. Depot at North Hampton. It was known as one of the most picturesque rides provided by the street car line and might have been retained with some assistance from the residents of the towns which it served, but this was not forthcoming and up came the rails.

The company will begin to dismantle the line at once. The rails are the best of steel, in fine shape and can be used for many years to come.

While it is not made public, it is known that the company would meet the business men of Portsmouth and residents of Atlantic Heights in a 50-50 proposition to use the equipment for a line to Freeman's Point. This is an opportunity which should be given some consideration and brought to a head, if possible for the development of the city, why not some kind of a drive to land the line at the Atlantic Heights?

If no move is made in that direction the rails, trolley wire and other equipment which can be used will be added to other parts of the system.

J. G. SWEETSER, SOLE AGENT

COURT GIVES RED CROSS SEIZED WHISKEY

Big Lots of Canadian Liquors
Are Daily Seized by Government Officials at the Border Line.

Release of 21 quarts of whiskey to the Dexter, Me., Red Cross Chapter, pending as a Government agency for distribution of the liquor, mediated in the manner provided by law, is specified by Judge John P. A. Merrill, district attorney, approved by Judge Hale, in a libel against 160 cases of Canadian whiskey.

This release was expressly ordered by Judge Hale, directed to John S. P. H. Wilson, U. S. marshal, Custodian, and Judge Merrill was mediator.

"This libel which Judge Merrill filed seeks condemnation and forfeiture of the balance of the liquor which was seized by Lewis A. Field, a deputy U. S. collector of customs at Yonkers, Dec. 29th.

"The form of such libel is to the effect that liquor thus condemned and ordered forfeited is to be retained 60 days after date of the libel giving the U. S. marshal opportunity to dispose of the same at private sale in compliance with all the conditions imposed by law, or for any department or agency of the Government makes claim for it to be used as medicine, in mechanics or for scientific purposes. Only those who have permits to use it in this manner or make disposal for these purposes, have a right to buy.

This liquor was taken from a motor car by this officer after it had been brought across the line from New Brunswick.

Another libel is directed against 1,336 bottles of Canadian whiskey and six tons of hay. Both the wet and dry goods were seized by U. S. Marshal Wilson in northern Maine Junction, Feb. 9 while he was attending the Northern Maine District Court session and was on a tip that the shipment of hay from a Canadian point to one in Maine already well stocked with hay, looked somewhat questionable. This large quantity of intoxicant was packed away in the hay in a freight car. Necessarily the hay is taken in due process of law as a container of contraband.

A third libel runs against 1,750 bottles of Canadian whiskey that was seized by Lester A. Colby at Northern Maine Junction, Feb. 1. Still another of similar import is directed against 27 cases of alcohol, 332 gallons, seized by Frank H. Reed at Van Buren, Dec. 26. This was intercepted as it was being brought from Canada. No claimants have filed claims to regain possession of any of the liquor. Each libel runs for 60 days under the same conditions.

WOOD AND JOHNSON FIGHT IN INDIANA

Indianapolis, Ind., April 30.—There is every indication at this time that Leonard Wood and Hiram Johnson will hold first and second places in the State-wide presidential primaries of Indiana next Tuesday. Most of the political prophets place Wood in first place and Johnson in second, but all admit that Johnson will be a hard contender and has a good chance to win. If it were a straight-out contest between Wood and Johnson there would be little doubt about Wood's victory. But both Lowden and Harding are in the contest. Johnson's campaign managers believe they will be able to hold to all those elements of strength that have been on Johnson's side from the beginning. They figure, therefore, that with the strength the organization headed by Senator Watson will gather for Harding and the votes Lowden will be able to pick up along the hills, the Indiana State line and in the north western part of the State Johnson will carry the State.

CHIHUAHUA IN HANDS ON REBEL ARMY

Anahuac, Sonora, April 30.—Chihuahua city is definitely in the hands of the revolutionists. It is the announcement of Gen. P. Elias Calles tonight.

TENTS FOR THE EVICTED

New York, April 30.—A village of tents will rise on the grounds of the Chatham Army Training College here to shelter New Yorkers who will be homeless tomorrow or directly thereafter by May 1 eviction proceedings.

The Army has issued an appeal to tent owners to lend their tents for the emergency and plans are being laid to care for 1000 persons. Application has been made for use of the military buildings at Camp Merritt, N. J. which have been sold by the Government, but which may be retained on the ground of an extension of the camp lease, which expires June 1, can be arranged. Officials of the Van Owners Association predicted today that tomorrow would prove the lightest moving day the city has experienced in fifty years. Scarcity of apartments and lack of tenants that the few of them would be held over their present occupants under the latest new rent laws have influenced the majority of persons having any kind of quarters to remain in them.

AWARDS MADE BY CARNEGIE HERO FUND COMMISSION

Pittsburgh, April 30.—One silver medal and eleven bronze medals were awarded to heroes today by the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission, in recognition of noteworthy acts by men and women who sought to help others at their own peril. Five of them died, while two were disabled. To their last breath the Commission made monetary grants, $2,000 and $50 a month in one case and $1,000 in the other. The Commission also awarded $5,000 for other worthy causes.

The five who lost their lives were: R. William Donaghy, of 6192 Calverly street, Philadelphia, who was drowned while trying to save a young man from death in Elk river at Town point, Md., August 31, 1919; David M. Prince, 21 East Pine street, Goldsboro, N. C., drowned while trying to rescue a boy from a flooded road near his home, July 26, 1919; Frank J. Nagel, East 1001 Walton avenue, Spokane, Washington, drowned while trying to save a child from the North Branch of the Crow river at Kingstons, Minn., July 23, 1919; Paul K. Hendrick, age 14, drowned while trying to save a younger boy from a creek at Hampton, Pa., June 28, 1919; William Carroll, 1717 Linden Street, Brooklyn, N. Y., age 15, drowned while trying to rescue another boy Sept. 21, 1919. The silver medal went to Frank W. Roberts, chief engineer of the Masonic Home at Elizabethtown, Pa., who saved the lives of three young girls who while walking had got into deep water and were drowning.

-like oranges? Drink ORANGE-CRUSH

SO wholesome and good are Ward's Orange-Crush and Lemon-Crush—so carefully guarded their quality and purity—that even the littlest tots will thrive upon their harmless deliciousness. Your physician will tell you this.

And how the children like them! They are the drinks the kiddies dream about. All their tempting flavor and fragrance come from the delicate oil pressed from the fruit itself, combined by the exclusive Ward process with purest sugar and citric acid—the natural acid of citrus fruits.

New York, April 30.—A village of tents will rise on the grounds of the Chatham Army Training College here to shelter New Yorkers who will be homeless tomorrow or directly thereafter by May 1 eviction proceedings.

WOMEN OUTDO MEN IN SAVING OF EARNINGS

At Least Chicago Bank Deposits Indicate They Are Doing Twice as Much.

Chicago.—It's going to be a soft life for the men in 1920.

This was the prediction today of women who have invaded the field of finance and business, based on bank deposits by women in the last four years.

According to Mrs. H. C. Klenzinger, in charge of the women's department of the Continental and Commercial Bank here, the evolution of woman from a clinging vine to financial glutton is progressing rapidly and within a few generations woman will take her stand with the men financiers. That woman's evolution will mean her supplanting the man and his relegation to being a house husband is not entirely improbable, woman said.

Banking reports, according to reports, showed women proportionately saving more money than men.

In the last four years the number of women depositors as well as the amount of savings has doubled, they showed.

So rapid is the increase of women's activities in the business world and so great is the business banks are now transacting with women that big banks have already established, or are preparing to establish, a separate department for women depositors.

Scores of banks in the middle west have opened women's departments.

"Twice as many women are saving money today as before the war," said Miss Nina Y. Carter, in charge of the women's department of a Chicago bank.

Five years ago the number of women depositors at her bank, according to Miss Carter, totaled 215 with $300,000 in savings. Today there are 1,700 with a total deposit of one million dollars.

Women are not holding their savings in the bank if good investments are offered, she said. Small certain profits are demanded by them in preference to big dividends on speculative stocks. Most investments go in to 5 and 6 per cent gilt edge bonds.

Other Chicago banks report huge increases in savings deposits by women. The First Trust and Savings Bank reported that women have checked accounts totaling $3,000,000.

Reports from leading central western cities also showed women engaging in business and increasing women's share in investments and bank deposits.

One-third of the depositors at the Iowa Loan and Trust Company, Des Moines, are women, an official said. This official estimated that in proportion these women were saving more than the men.

Springfield, Ill., bank books showed three out of every four new depositors are women.

The high cost of living, according to George H. Keys, vice president of the Midway Trust State Bank at Springfield, has resulted in women assuming charge of the weekly pay check.

The number of depositors in Milwaukee banks are divided equally among the two sexes. Half of the women, said George E. Fleischmann, assistant cashier of the First National bank, are wives depositing husband's savings. American bank working girls are poor savers, he said.

One St. Louis bank reported a number of women depositors had increased 33 1-2 percent, another 7 percent, another 50 percent and another 25 percent.

In the last three months 50 percent of the new savings accounts opened in Denver have been by women.

"They deposit more than half of the total savings in Denver banks and 75 percent in any bank savings line are women," said H. L. Morgan of the International Trust Company, Denver. "It simply means the husbands are giving their wives their wages."

President L. D. Hawley of the City National, Lincoln, Neb., says women in Lincoln are not saving any more than the men.

"I think the women workers are spending just about as much as they earn," he said.

LEAP YEAR GIVES WEDDINGS BOOST OVER COUNTRY

Chicago.—The number of marriage licenses taken out all over the United States in the first three months of leap year shows a large increase over that of last year. That there is a shortage in the supply of wedding rings reported and jewelers point out it may be well for the women not to overplay their hand by wedding too fast. The scarcity of gold and the big demand for plain gold bands are given as the cause of the ring famine.

Another development in the jewelry trade in a year when women enjoy the traditional privilege of making their own marriage proposals is that the demand for engagement rings has shown a decided falling off. This is interpreted to mean that women, in breaking off the conventional reservation, disapprove of long engagements and insist upon quick action in courtship affairs.

The leap year situation is regarded as seriously by jewelers that the trade is considering putting on the market a ring specially designed to serve a dual purpose as engagement and wedding ring.

"This new combination ring," said a wholesale jeweler, "will increase jewelers' sales and at the same time decrease the high cost of matrimony. It proves popular, as I believe it will, it will establish a fashion which will remain a lasting souvenir of the 1920 leap year."

RANCH HOUSES IN TEXAS ARE VANISHING

One of the Finest, Built Many Years Ago and Long Famous, Is Burned.

Three Rivers, Tex.—One of the relics of former days, when all of south Texas was an unbroken ranch region, has just passed away by the burning of the ranch house owned by H. B. Crosby, situated near Three Rivers. This building in its time was perhaps the finest ranch home in all that region lying between San Antonio and the Gulf. It was built forty-seven years ago by John Campbell, who is well known to all of the old time cattle men of Texas. He hailed from St. Mary.

The residence was a two story structure with many large guest rooms. Notwithstanding the long distance that the lumber had to be hauled, there was no stint of this material in the erection of the building. That it was most substantially constructed is shown by the fact that at the time it was burned it was in practically as good condition as when it was first built.

During all the years that it stood upon the ranch it had been kept in careful repair. In the days before the railroads it was the stopping place for many cattlemen and other visitors who chanced to be passing through this section. The hospitality of its various occupants was widely known.

It is interesting to note in connection with the passing of this old landmark that there are a few of the original ranch residences in South Texas still standing. In the counties to the south of here near the Rio Grande are some of these ancient structures that date back more than 100 years, perhaps longer. In some instances they have been permitted to fall into a condition of decay, while in others they have been kept up or rehabilitated along some of their original lines.

One of the most interesting perhaps of these old-time ranch homes is known as San Antonio Viejo, or Old San Antonio, situated in Jim Hogg county upon the ranch which formerly belonged to Manuel Guerra. The building is of stone, two stories, with a large Spanish patio. In architecture the residence is of Moorish type. When it was built it must have been a veritable palace, but for many years past it has been used as the home of Mexican cowboys and is badly out of repair.

Near by this ancient ranch home are the smaller stone houses of the servants. A feature of this little ranch settlement is a stone chapel where religious services were held for the benefit of the ranch folk.

It is stated that some of these homes were built during the period of the Spanish control of Mexico. What are now comparatively small ranches were then a part of vast feudal estates in the form of land grants that were given to favorites of the king in recognition of some barbaric expedition or feat of arms. There are several of these large land grants lying to the south of here in Texas and upon each of them are one or more of the old grim-looking feudal types of residence.

It has been suggested that an interesting history of these early Texas homes might be written and that by all means photographs should be taken and preserved of these that are still standing. In the years to come such a collection would form a valuable addition. It is asserted to the history of Texas, and particularly of the romantic and stirring times of the Rio Grande border.

GOLD BANDS PROTECT WASHINGTON MONUMENT

Are Used at Apex as Lightning Conductors.

Few persons who have seen the Washington monument, even those who have lived within sight of it all their lives, have noticed that the apex of the monument is surrounded with parallel bands. Such is the fact, however, and moreover, the bands are studded with golden points. The bands are made of gold plated on a steel wire, and the points are spaced a foot from one another.

For a few moments in each sunny day of the month, the sun's rays are reflected from the apex of the monument in visible to the naked eye. Then, the angle of incidence of the sun's rays is such that they are reflected downward to the windows of the buildings north and west of the monument, and the cool, gray surface is seen to be marked with its shining lines of gold.

Theoretically, a similar effect could be obtained from some point of observation at each moment when the sun's rays are intercepted by the shining top of the monument, but only an airplane or a balloon could find the necessary advantage point.

According to the original plan of the monument it was protected from lightning by an aluminum top that was connected with the metal framework of the elevator. During the very first summer after the monument was completed, however, it was struck twice.

CITY OF ODENBURG TAKEN OVER BY AUSTRIA

(By Associated Press)

Odenburg, German West Hungary, April 29.—Red, white and green posters with legends of protest against the separation of this post-Hungarian city from Hungary and its accession by Austria as soon as the peace is ratified, appear in every house and shop window.

Two Austrian commissioners, sent here to make preliminary arrangements for taking over the administration of the town, upon their arrival were greeted and faced by a great crowd, vegetables were thrown at their carriage and black flags hung from many of the public and other buildings. They seem powerless. It is said, and are now virtually voluntarily interned in their offices here.

This little city which the Hungarians call Sopron, is the metropolis of that strip of territory which the peace conference took from Hungary and gave to Austria as economic, ethnologic and strategic grounds.

Loss has caused the Budapest government to make various proposals to Austria in an effort to retain it, all of which have been refused. Meanwhile the men here very generally wear the Hungarian colors in their coat lapels and the women on their hats or as hair ribbons. The Austrians charge that the demonstration against their mission was a governmentally organized affair.

The Hungarian government has endeavored, it is charged, to create the impression that this region is predominantly Hungarian in race, tongue and by predilection. The Vienna government on the other hand has resisted and a piece of stone was shipped from the top.

Experts from all the scientific departments of the government were called on to contrive a plan for the better protection of the shaft, and they decided that copper bands, studded with projecting points, would accomplish the purpose.

Col. Casey, who had charge of the work objected on the ground that the copper would turn green, and that the verdigris would "run" and spoil the appearance of the monument; he also pointed out that the copper would have the necessary tensile strength. So the men of science agreed on a number of iron bands, heavily galvanized and gold-plated so as to prevent rusting.

The bands are connected with the aluminum point of the monument and the framework of the elevator, and at the base from cables lead the electricity into a deep well, where it luminously expands its force. The protection has proved to be perfect.—Sun and New York Herald.

WILL INCREASE STOCK.

Boston, April 29.—The American Woolen Company today announced its intention to stock over its stockholders authority and to increase its preferred and common stock by $20,000,000 each. Under the plan presented stockholders of both classes would be given the right to subscribe for the new common stock at par in the ratio of one share for each three now held. The new preferred stock would be held for instance later. The company's proposal will be voted upon at the next meeting of the stockholders.

WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

May Pass the Critical Period Safely and Comfortably by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Summit, N. J.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound during change of life and I think it is a good remedy in such a condition. I could not digest my food and had much pain and burning in my stomach. I could not sleep, had backache, and worst of all, were the hot flashes. I saw in the paper about a vegetable compound and I felt all right and can work better. You have my permission to publish this letter."—Victoria Korpe, 21 Oak Ridge Ave., Summit, N. J.

If you have warning symptoms such as a sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headache, backache, dizziness, fainting, nervousness, irritability, constipation, variable appetite, weakness, inactivity, and dizziness, get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and begin taking the medicine at once. We know it will help you as it did Mrs. Korpe.

ed this with counter claims that the people are dominantly Germanic by blood, language and desire.

Of late weeks there has been considerable publicity given semi-official Austrian statements that, pending their withdrawal, the Hungarians were appropriating material of all kinds and generally weakening their revenue in much the same way as the Russians did in Vienna. It was even stated in high Vienna quarters that financial houses were being taken away.

These reports were so persistent as to lead the correspondent for the Associated Press to attempt a first hand investigation. This has covered ten typical villages, exclusive of this little capital, with talks here and there with peasants in the fields or along the roads.

It is fair to say that in the region visited no evidence in support of the alleged Hungarian oppression or requisitioning was to be had. The net impression gained was that the majority of the population in the localities covered are in favor of union with Austria. One woman assigned by the peasants as being a Magyar, they said, had never given their children to school. Their children were very poorly taught, if taught at all, and they at least knew the Austrians had good schools. Then Vienna was their market. Budapest was a long way off. The Hungarian official classes were "unsympathetic with the farmer" and so on. This was echoed in other towns. Naturally there were dissent. Here and there men talked of the Vienna Communist government, with which they wanted nothing to do.

COOK BOOK NOT LIKE THE GOOD OLD DAYS

Lobster Newburg Unsherryed, Welsh Rarebit Unbeered.

It is with a feeling of gentle melancholy, mixed with boneless longing, that we glance over the pages of an old cook book. We are struggling to find a palatable dessert which requires no sugar, eggs or butter. Could it be possible that we ever made angel cake? We glance with awe at the unobtainable, rare-free beginning of the recipe. "The whites of ten eggs, beaten to a stiff froth!" Here is a mound cake which we once ate so freely and unthinkingly. One pound of butter in the first requisite. We pass hastily over this page and hunt for a sour milk, one-egg apple cake which may pass muster in the family circle.

It is interesting to read the names of recipes, especially those of the conserving variety; they are at least truthful, for they profess to be but indication of delicacies. One dessert, tried once and once only, was called mock mule pudding. When taken from the oven and served, it was found to have a distinct maple flavor, but in substance and color it resembled a liquid and so strongly that we were tempted to mend the broken table with what was left of it (which was a good deal). Mock mule meat is very good. If you have never tasted the real article, but eating it reminds one of the Mock Turtle in "Alice in Wonderland," nothing so plaintively his life-story: "Once I was a real turtle."

The casserole is a dish of suspicion. It may be very tasty and appetizing, but we know it is composed of leftovers; everything in the larder has been thrown into the casserole, and it has "gently shimmered" or "moderately baked" for three hours and a half, in order to amalgamate the contents into a harmonious, if unclassified whole.

The dish known as "poor man's pudding" never was very popular, and it shows that, after all, there is something in a name. The ingredients are simple and cheap—rice and milk; but if it had been called "snowflake cream" it might have tickled our fancy, if not our palate.

"Bird's nest pudding" may be a little suggestive of Chinese tastes, but it proves to be a harmless combination of apples and tangerines. "Devil's food" in dark but very delicious cake found to have no harmful effect on character, whatever it may have upon digestion. "Macaroni trifles" prove occasionally that "trifles light as air, are to the despatch" is a heavy burden. "Hermit's" are not at all well named; a delicious spiced cookie filled with nuts and raisins—surely not a hermit's fare.

The colored advertisements of salads, fruit jellies and layer cakes in the magazines allure us, and stir nameless longings in our hearts. Oh, for a similar salad, or ham and eggs so delectable! As for the jellies, which the birthday children seem to prefer to ice cream, something deep and elemental within us makes us doubt their sincerity. The jellies are all very well, but we wish a pinch of salt could be taken.

No more does brandy sauce, with

Jelly or thsy pudding figure in our menus. Our lobster Newburg is unsherryed, our Welsh rabbit unbeered. We eat concoctions that we never thought we could eat, but we find that they satisfy hunger and seem to nourish our bodies. Still, it is not like the "good old days."

NAVY VERY SHORT OF EFFICIENT CLERKS

Because there is a shortage of efficient clerical help in the navy, the department has established several schools for the training of men in such duties. The schools are at Newport, R. I., at the Naval Operating base at Hampton Roads, Va., and at San Francisco, Calif.

The course in these schools is six months. Students are furnished with board and room, an outfit of clothing valued at $100 and are paid $22.50 a month while learning. On completion they may be graduated third or second class yeoman. Knowledge of shorthand is not necessary, but is of benefit. Third class yeomen receive $11 a month, second class $16.50. Since the pay is all clear it is about equivalent to $1 a day.

The education received in this school is valued as invaluable to a man who desires to return to civilian life after the completion of his cruise.

After a period of probation, about ship a man may be rated, if qualified, first class yeoman, then chief, with an active appointment, and finally, after another period of probation, might qualify for a permanent appointment as chief yeoman. These grades pay respectively $52, 72, and $83 a month.

Commander R. E. Donnell of the Navy Recruiting Station, in the Corbett building, said today that as soon as the pay bill now before Congress becomes a law the pay of the last two mentioned grades will be $90 and $120 a month respectively.

A man enlisting for two years may take this course of instruction. Regular enlistments are for two, three or four years.

The Little Bowers scored big with their show on Thursday and cleared up a neat little sum for their building fund.

SIMPSON BOOSTER CLUB AT YORK

A very enthusiastic gathering of members of the J. W. Simpson booster club and citizens of York was held at Fireman's hall, York, Thursday evening, when all listened to short but able talks by Rev. Mr. Cornish, J. P. Putnam, Hon. J. W. Simpson, E. C. Howker, Lorenz Williams of Wells and others.

Rev. Mr. Cornish was a chaplain in the Maine National Guard and served during the war in France. He has known Mr. Simpson only a short time but in his remarks said that he knew a real man when he met one and for that reason advocated his nomination for representative from the First Maine district.

Mr. Putnam spoke of Mr. Simpson as a schoolmate and son of York, of whom the town should be proud. Mr. Simpson explained some matters which have been in the air regarding his attitude on railroads and had correspondence regarding these matters to prove his claims. He also declared himself very emphatically and favorably to the navy yard and considered that he would add more influence with the Maine delegation to boost the yard not only for Kittery, but for all.

The meeting was ably presided over by Roger Latham, after which all adjourned to a collation furnished by the ladies. Aid. of the Applied society.

More and Better Sunday Schools As Cure For Juvenile Delinquents

RELIGIOUS DISTRIBUTION OF CHILDREN UNDER 25 YEARS OF AGE IN THE UNITED STATES

THE AMERICA OF TOMORROW!
JEW OR GENTILE? CATHOLIC OR PROTESTANT?
ATHEIST OR RELIGIOUS?

More Young People Without Religious Instruction Than With
Juvenile delinquency and non-attendance at Sunday School bear a direct relation to the one to the other, according to a statement just issued by the Religious Education Department of the Interchurch World Movement.

Dr. Walter S. Alden, head of the department, declares that the way to cope with juvenile delinquency, which in every country seems to be on the increase as a result of the war, is to provide more and better Sunday Schools and religious institutions for the young. For this purpose the sum of $5,931,925 is expressly set aside, in addition to the existing provision in the budget of the thirty denominations that are co-operating in the Interchurch World Movement. The total sum which these denominations expect to collect during a week of intensive campaign between April 25 and May 2 is $36,777,572.

At present, according to figures published by the Interchurch survey of religious education, there are 12,617,000 children and youth receiving religious education in the Protestant Sunday schools of the country, 8,617,000 in Roman Catholic and 1,630,000 in Jewish schools; but there are 26,861,000 young people who are not connected with any Sunday school or institution of religious instruction.

An intensive study of the problem of juvenile delinquency in New York is now under way. During 1919 there passed through the children's courts of New York county (the borough of Manhattan) alone 7,220 children, while the children's courts of Greater New York passed on 13,627 cases. Many of these children, Dr. Alden declares, "are absolute pagans. They have been given no moral standards whatever. Their only rule of conduct is to avoid doing what they have come through experience to know they will be punished for. Anything that they believe they can 'get away with' is all right, so far as they know."

The result of millions of children being brought up without any training in ethical standards, Dr. Alden points out, is that crime costs the country $6,000,000,000 a year—three times as much as the country's drain bill before prohibition. "Denominational leaders believe that every dollar spent in preventing means of proper ethical training will knock a hundred dollars off the country's crime bill. Hence their decision to set aside a special fund to be spent exclusively on the improvement and extension of religious education."

So important do religious leaders believe this whole question to be, that the Interchurch World Movement has decided to extend to other cities the intensive investigation into juvenile delinquency started in New York. Preliminary studies will be made of nine other typical cities through the country, including Boston, Indianapolis, Chicago, San Francisco and Seattle. Experts engaged in the investigation believe that what their studies are complete they will have collected a mass of data to prove that juvenile delinquency is almost invariably most prevalent where religious training is least efficient.

ITALY OWNS MUCH LAND IN EAST AFRICA

Cotton and Cereals Can Be Raised There in Great Abundance.

Rome, April 30.—Arctic exploration and shooting the savages' polar bear, have no allurements at present for the Duke of the Abruzzi, who is now engaged in the equally seductive if less hazardous task of investigating the commercial and agricultural possibilities of the Benadiri Colony, East Africa, with a view to making it a source of income for Italy, and even eventually of rendering that country independent of other nations for her supplies of cotton and cereals.

The Duke, in addition, intends to explore the sources of the Uebi Sebel River, which, rising in the high plateau of Ituri, toward Abyssinia, passes through the Italian colonies to the sea, and, it is believed, can easily be rendered navigable for small boats, besides being invaluable as a source of irrigation for the extensive agricultural enterprises which the Duke hopes to initiate in Benadiri.

The first news has just arrived at the expedition which started last December from Mogadiscio. An exhaustive study has already been made of the winds, the climate and the rainfall of the country. Engineer Agostinelli, who is accompanying the expedition and who has done considerable work on the rivers and canals of the Lower Nile, considers that it will be comparatively easy to utilize the waters of the Uebi Sebel for a system of canals, which will now suffer from drought which will more than quadruple its productive power.

The Duke of the Abruzzi, with the experts who have accompanied him, are setting up two big experimental farms where it will be demonstrated what immense harvests of cotton, durum, sugar and coffee can be obtained in this country through irrigation, a system of intensive culture and the use of modern agricultural machines.

The ex-German cargo boat, now called the Carlo Pisacane, which brought news of the expedition, also carried a large shipment of durum from the colony, a grain which resembles maize and can be used, together with ordinary flour, for bread. It also has been proved that the breeding of cattle in Benadiri can be greatly increased so that supplies can be sent to Italy of meat and hides.

All this work is being done, it is announced, entirely at the expense of the Duke, who desires that Italy's colonies should be developed and hope that similar work may be started in Lybia and Cyrenaica.

THE FAMOUS OLD FRIGATE KEARSARGE THAT MADE HISTORY FOR AMERICAN NAVY

OLD JAFFREY MANSION IS DISMANTLED

Portsmouth is fast losing some of its old-time Colonial mansions and in the past few years a good number have changed hands and been made over into business, property or demolished, in others remain few traces of the original spacious mansions, many of which were once surrounded by large old fashioned gardens, a delight to the owner, and would also have been to the passer-by had not it been the custom of many in those days to have a high board fence enclose the garden adjoining these ancestral homes.

One of the last of the old houses to be dismantled in this city is the Jaffrey mansion on Linden street, built somewhere near the year 1730. The last occupant of the ancient mansion was Miss Habelina Goodrich, a highly esteemed woman, who died a year ago last February. The house was in the possession of the Goodrich family for eighty years or more, although one-half of the property was sold a few years ago to Frank N. Simon. Last fall the house and land was sold at public auction the purchaser being J. A. Sells, a Boston antique dealer. It was later sold by him to the Boston Museum of Fine Arts, being purchased for its colonial architecture.

Skilled workmen from the museum have been in this city for two weeks dismantling the old house, and two trucks filled with its beautiful wood work have been sent to Boston. Most of the front chambers have been taken off the front and the plan is to put together the two front rooms and build and this will later be seen at the museum on Huntington Avenue.

The Jaffrey mansion was built by George Jaffrey, 2d, who was born in the Jaffrey house at New Castle. At the time this house was built he was a member of the Province of New Hampshire, as well as Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. While very old, the house still bore marks of its former beauty. The woodwork of the spacious hall and stairway was very handsome, while the dining room contained a fine top China closet said to be worth a thousand dollars, and with only one duplicate known in the country. The Biblical tiles of the fire place were each said to be worth a good sum.

ADM. PARKS HERE FOR BRIDGE MEETING

Rear Admiral C. W. Parks, of Washington, April 30.—After checking over the confidential reports of agents from all parts of the country government officials were confident that the May Day demonstrations of radicals would not result in any violence. District Attorney Garvin who directed the raids in January on the Communist and Communist Party, said tonight that late reports indicate that whatever violence would be sporadic. Most of the radicals will have demonstrations and what ever trouble will come from outbreaks at these meetings. The department would allow them to talk themselves blue and government agents will observe the tenor of their action.

Several members of Congress, three Federal judges and one attorney who were prominent in prosecuting radicals, were marked for assassination, but with the early discovery of the plot the officials are now amply protected.

Most of the radicals will have demonstrations and what ever trouble will come from outbreaks at these meetings. The department would allow them to talk themselves blue and government agents will observe the tenor of their action.

Several members of Congress, three Federal judges and one attorney who were prominent in prosecuting radicals, were marked for assassination, but with the early discovery of the plot the officials are now amply protected.

WOMAN'S CITY CLUB NOTES

Mrs. Mary F. Woods, of this city delivered an able address before the members of the Woman's City club and guests at the Woman's Building on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Wood, in her usual charming and interesting way, presented for the consideration of her audience some of the many obstacles that will have to be met and overcome by them in the future that lie close at hand. Her message was instructive and inspiring, and radiated her determination to act as she herself believed to be right and best; while she sought to inculcate in her listeners a firm resolution to weigh vital questions by the most comprehensive and impartial methods and standards, and then to act in each individual case as one's conscience dictated, believing that truth would prevail. She made very clear her conviction that if, in deciding upon the great problems that are to confront the women of this country, the mothers would ask themselves the question, "How will it be with my child?" their decisions must bring about the results that will demand truth and justice.

At the meeting on Thursday afternoon, May 6, Miss Hannah Demald of the Portsmouth Public Library will speak on matters relating to public libraries.

The May Day breakfast to be conducted by the club tomorrow, Saturday morning, in an innovation for Portsmouth in the line of festivities. The breakfast will be served from 6.30 to 9 o'clock, thus accommodating everyone desiring to be present. The plans will be prepared by Mrs. Mary Lane Blackford, assisted by an able committee. The dining room service will be in charge of Mrs. Wallace Lear with a force of assistants. Preparations have been made to serve a large number and it is the object of the club to cater.

ENTERTAINED YOUNG FRIENDS

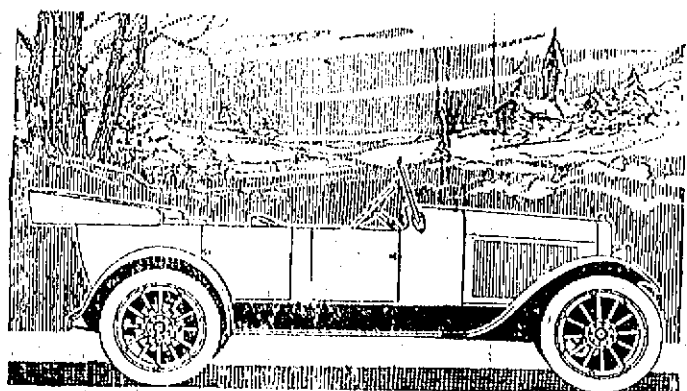

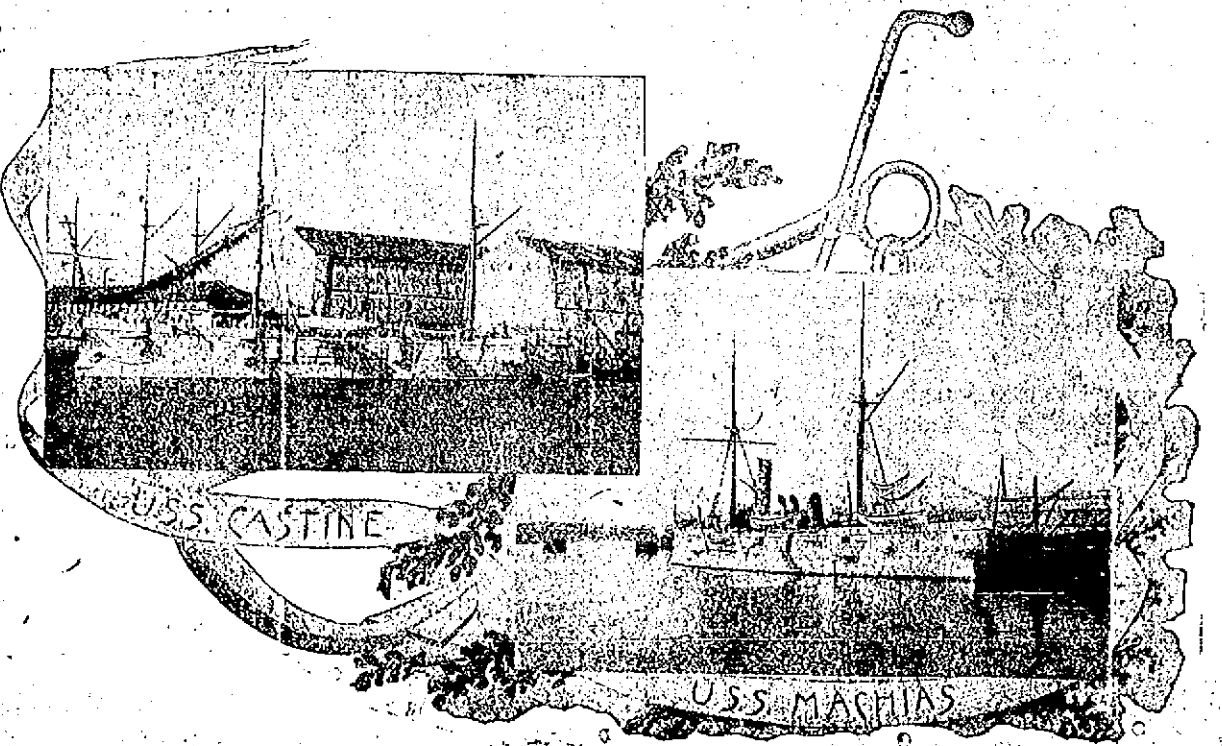

Miss Eleanor Pickering entertained her young friends with a birthday party on Friday evening at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Pickering on Rockland street.

Mean Everyway

(From the Baltimore American)

Brazil is becoming suspicious of the delay of the Germans in surrendering torpedo boats, as agreed upon in the peace treaty. It must be said for Germany that she is treating all the nations with strict impartiality in evading obligations.

NAVY YARD WATER FRONT SHOWING OLD SHIP HOUSES AND THE U. S. S. CASTINE AT THE DOCK

They're Here—Those New CHALMERS

IT'S the very car that delighted New York Automobile Show crowds—with a higher radiator and lower body lines. The windshield is low and the top is low, and you sit snugly in those tilted seat cushions with a comfort difficult to express.

Like the proportions of a fine room the lines of this new Chalmers have a certain evenness, certain engaging dimensions and proper ratios that alone tempt you to reach for your check book.

But only in the body and bonnet and such things is this a new Chalmers. The chassis is unchanged—well nigh faultless.

Hot Spot and Ram's-horn continue to supply the remedy for the prevailing inferior gasoline of the day.

This is one car in which you have most anything you could wish for—rare ability and richness of line and detail.

The first of these new Chalmers are here; see them without delay.

Obviously, the demand outranks the supply.
